1. Review lesson three 2. Review today's lesson 3. Talking circle/azilya		Highlight lesson three " Bullying I ". Review the values learned in lesson three.		Students will reflect about self and relationship to others as defined by the values. All students will actively participate and take ownership inside the Medicine Wheel Circle. Students will learn about trust and respect with other values that help to identify who they are as individuals.
		Have Students form a circle around the Medicine Wheel and azilya. Introduce today's values waunsila – compassion, waohola – respect cantet'inze – to be brave, courageous, wolakota – peace
4. Show the Todd County High School Anti-Bullying Video		Ask students to discuss the effects their actions, both positive and negative, have on each other.		Students will learn by stepping up in a situation they can help someone that may be bullied
				After doing the activities students will learn the effects of negative name calling.
5. Students will work in their Waniyetu Wowapi Journals		Instruct students that they will be doing activities in their journals.		Students will learn to develop personal strategies to be aware of negative behavior and how to avoid them and how to help others,
		Ask students to share how they can be good to one another.
